Charlatans' 'Playbill' Opening Next Week

Program Consists Of 2 One Acters

By Dan Fulmer

Rehearsals for the Charlatans' fall production, Playbill consisting of two long one-act plays, The Browning Version and Harlequinade, both to be given in Commons Hall on Dec. 6, 7 and 8, are in their last stage of preparation.

Bob Lang, Charlatans' director, announced today that because of the Sophomore Dance, also being held next weekend, the Saturday performance will be a matinee beginning at 2:30 p. m. The evening performances will be at 8 on Thursday and Friday.

Month's Rehearsal

The two plays have been in rehearsal for over a month. This week the casts moved into Commons to work on the stage setup there for the production. Bill Woodman, director of The Browning Version and Charlatans' production manager, said today, "All character interpretations have been ironed out. This was the most important job in getting The Browning Version ready for production, since the play is a close portrayal of a man's emotions in crisis. The character of both the schoolmaster, who is forced to retire from an English public school because of ill health, and of the people who influence him create the moving drama in the play."

Brownfield Plays Teacher

Leading The Browning Version with Brownfield is Betty Williams, playing the schoolmaster's shrewish and unfaithful wife. Mrs. Williams was also in the Male Animal last year. Filling out the cast for the fall production are Paul Hogan, David Parfitt, Pieter Mayer, Mrs. Don Jones and Carl Peterson.

Going from the light farce of Harlequinade to the serious drama of The Browning Version is a decided change of mood. "It makes for a happy medium, however," said Lang, "and for that reason the plays should provide both an entertaining and interesting evening." The constant element in both plays is their author, Terrence Rattigan, English playwrite who has five Broadway hits such as Edward, My Son and O, Mistress Mine. When Harlequinade and The Browning Version were given in London two years ago, they were called Playbill, a title the Charlatans have adopted for their production.

Raynor, Grinwis Direct

The opening part of Playbill, Harlequinade, is directed by Tom Raynor and David Grinwis, who commented that "The play is rolling on quite smoothly

Frisbie To Play In All-Star Game

Another first for Hamilton's 1951 soccer team was written into the records yesterday when Captain Charles Frisbie was chosen as a member of the All-North soccer team for the annual North-South soccer game, to be played this year at McCarthy Stadium, LaSalle College, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on December 8.

The College will pay all expenses for the Continental soccer star's trip to Philadelphia.

Frisbie will be one of the sixteen New York State and New England states players to represent the North. The game will be an official try-out for the 1952 United States Olympic soccer team which will compete in Finland next year.

Budgets Presented By Two Activities

Budgets of extra-curricular organizations were the main subject of discussion at the last Student Council meeting on November 12. The entire membership of the Council was present.

A budget request of $30 for the International Relations Club was granted unanimously.

The Outing Club also presented a budget, but discussion of it was tabled until an Outing Club member could attend a Council meeting personally.

The recent Spectator editorial on "interlocking directorates" in College organizations prompted discussion of the Haverford plan as a remedy for the situation. Unless the question is brought up again, however, the Student Council plans to make no changes affecting any group over which it has control.

Dr. J. C. Schroeder To Speak At Chapel

Dr. John C. Schroeder, chairman of the department of religion at Yale University, will speak at the Chapel service this Sunday.

A graduate of City College of New York and Union Theological Seminary, Dr. Schroeder is an ordained minister of the Congregational Church. He served in the American Red Cross in France from 1918 to 1919, and later was the pastor of several churches in the United States. From 1934 to 1937 he was a lecturer in Biblical literature at Bowdoin College. In 1937 he became professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology at Yale. In 1946, he was promoted to his present position.

Dr. Schroeder is the author of two books, The Task of Religion and Modern Man and the Cross. His home is in New Haven, Connecticut.

Dr. C. K. Chase, Classics Teacher Until 1941, Dies

By Dave Dickens

Dr. Cleveland King Chase, retired professor of Latin and noted American authority on classical matters, died Tuesday at his home in Clinton after a brief illness. Funeral services for Dr. Chase, who served at Hamilton for 30 years, were held in Clinton this morning.

He was born in Iowa on November 30, 1871, and was graduated from Oberlin twenty years later. In 1896 he returned to that college as an instructor in Latin. He occupied this position for three years.

Dr. Chase came to Hamilton from Earlham College in Indiana, where he had been Professor of Latin in 1911. An outgrowth of his teaching here was the presentation of plays in Latin, a practice which he maintained until 1931. These plays were so successful that they were presented at Smith, Princeton, and New York City.

Known As "Trot"

Dr. Chase was popularly known as "Trot" Chase, a nickname which he acquired shortly after his arrival at Hamilton. His students knew very little Latin, and were using English translations. When informed by Dr. Chase that they could never hope to pass the course, a committee from one of his classes called on him. They offered to burn all the trots then on campus if he would "take it easy" on them. A huge bonfire appeared on his lawn one night and subsequent classes agreed not to use the English translations. From then on he was known as "Trotless" Chase, an appellation which was later sortened to "Trot."

Dr. Chase, a Phi Beta Kappa, retired from active teaching in June, 1941, to live in Clinton.

He was a member of the advisory council of the American Classical School in Rome, the Archaeological Institute of America, the Classical Association of the Middle West and South and the Classical Association of the Atlantic States, of which he had served as president.

Early Reports Show Success For Drive

Sig Firemen Halt Potential Disaster

Quick discovery by senior Rod Gander of a smouldering dumb waiter shaft in the Sigma Phi House preventer a potentially disastrous blaze late yesterday afternoon.

At 5:45 p.m., smoke had begun to fill the first and second floors of the 34-year old house but the smoke was traced to the dumb-waiter shaft, directly underneath the stove. Flames, discovered between the floors of the building, were extinguished by students using carbon dioxide extinguishers, and the Clinton Fire Department helped with its booster hose.

Damage to the house was negligible, Larry Rouillard, steward, reported.

Union Philosopher To Address PBK

Professor Harold A. Larrabee of Union College will deliver the Phi Beta Kappa lecture Wednesday, December 5, at 8:30 p. m. in the College Chapel. At this time the recently elected members of Phi Beta Kappa will be initiated.

Members of the College community are invited to attend the lecture, which is part of the local chapter's celebration of the 175th anniversary of the founding of national Phi Beta Kappa. Dr. Larrabee will discuss "The Scholar in an Age of Anxiety."

Professor Larrabee, a member of the philosophy department at Union, received A.B. and Ph.D degrees from Harvard in 1916 and 1925, respectively, an A.M. from Columbia in 1918, and a diploma from Union Theological Seminary in 1920.

Dr. Larrabee is a member of the American Philosophical Association, the American Association of University Professors, the Societe des Americanistes de Paris, the American Friends of Lafayette and Phi Beta Kappa. He is also the author of several books: What Philosophy Is, 1928; Rhymes About College, 1936; and Reliable Knowledge, 1945.

Hamilton Outing Club Inspects Famed Cave

Seven members of the Outing Club, accompanied by faculty members Philip Oxley and Cecil Schneer of the Geology department, journeyed on November 18 to Dolgeville, New York to explore that community's famed Adirondack caverns.

Campus Fund Hit $3100 Last Night

According to figures, complete to 1 o'clock this morning, 483 students and members of the faculty, staff, and administration had pledged $3,093 to the third annual Hamilton College Campus Fund.

Early this morning chairman Si Keehn was confident that the goal of $3,500 would be reached by tonight. When headquarters of the Fund committee in Buttrick Hall closed last night more than 150 pledge cards had not been returned. Six hundred and fifty three cards were distributed to 47 student solicitors.

Thanks Solicitors

Keehn said, "On behalf of the Campus Fund committee I would like to sincerely thank the entire College Community for its wholehearted support of the 1951-'52 Campus Fund. Deserving of particular thanks are the student solicitors who have given so freely of their time and efforts during the last two days. I hope that the response in years to come will be as gratifying as it has been this year."

Money collected for the Campus Fund will be sent to Assam University and Munich University by the World Students Service Fund, to Athens College, and to the National Scholarship Service and Fund for Negro Students.

Headed By Keehn

The Campus Fund committee, a sub-division of the Chapel Board, was headed by Si Keehn. Ron Seaman and Stew Pollock were co-treasurers and Irv Reid was in charge of publicity.

A kick-off dinner for Fund workers was held Wednesday night at the Psi U House. Wednesday assembly was devoted this week to the Campus Fund, and speakers there included Dean of the Chapel William Hamilton and Greek exchange student Euthymios Christodolou.

Topped Goal In '50

Last year $3,783 was pledged to the Campus Fund. The goal then was also $3,500. Six hundred and fifty six pledge cards were distributed, and 43 cards were returned, marked: "refused to pledge."

Final figures on this year's drive are expected to be complete by early next week.

One of the beneficiaries of the Campus Fund is headed by a Hamilton College graduate. The president of Athens College is Dr. Homer Davis, '16, who spoke on the Hill last year. The College was founded in 1925 by a committee of Greeks and Americans.

The Campus Fund was setup three years ago to consolidate all charity fund raising on the Hill. It is authorized by the Student Council.

THE WORLD SCENE

Forced Austerity Needed By U. S.

By Hugo Pfaltz

The recent tax boost and inflationary rise in the cost of living has brought home to us Americans the fact that we are, in all likelihood, about to face a period of forced "austerity" during peacetime. Until now we have been living under the rosy illusion that we can fight a war in Korea and combat global Communism while maintaining our extra high standard of living at home. But the recent round of tax increases, which represents actually a reduction in individual earnings (as high as 20%), shows us that we cannot have our cake and eat it too.

Formerly, we have tried to overcome "austerity" by accepting a wage and price boost along with every tax increase, but this suicidal policy merely undermines the value of our dollar and makes it necessary to have another tax increase in the future to get more revenue—part of which goes to make up for the value of the "tax dollar" that was lost by inflation.

Unfortunately, both of our political parties have not helped the matter. For they have blamed each other, Washington bureaucrats, racketeers, lack of "controls," and government graft as the sole causes of our inflation. And they have constantly promised the American public that if it weren't for the other party, Washington bureaucrats, racketeers, lack of "controls," or government graft, we could have both a higher standard of living and the world's mightiest moral and military force to stop Soviet imperialism.

Such promises seem like merely wishful thinking, and it appears that what we need is to pull in our belts and accept a lower standard of living as such. In other words we must accept "guns instead of butter" today in order to have the moral and military strength to combat Communism.

Alumni Council Holds Meeting; Sets Up New Fund Committee

By Murray Goldstone

A committee on alumni fund projects, which was approved by the Alumni Council at their meeting here last June, was urged to begin operation quickly at the Council's homecoming meeting on November 11.

The Council also heard of the establishment of two new full tuition scholarships which will be awarded in rotation among alumni geographic regions and of the printing of a Hamilton College song book.

Alumni to Support Projects

The committee on alumni fund projects was formed to investigate the condition of the College each year and make recommendations to the alumni of four or five specific projects on the Hill which the Council could support each year from part of the Alumni Fund.

The committee is composed of two members of the administration,two trustees of the College and two members of the Alumni Council. Robert U. Hayes and Harlan Calkins will represent the Council, while President Robert W. McEwen and Thomas B. Rudd, controller, will serve from the administration. No trustees have been chosen yet. The committee will make its first recommendations for the 1952-'53 year.

Scholarships Set Up

The alumni were also informed of the establishment of two four-year, full tuition scholarships which the Council had requested. The scholarships will rotate among alumni regions in order to attract freshmen from areas not now well represented by Hamilton men. Next year the scholarships will be awarded in the Boston and western New York areas.

The work on the College song book has now been completed under the direction of Norman Marsh, '14, and John Baldwin, instructor in music. The alumni voted to print 500 copies of the volume for distribution in the next six months. Containing 144 songs of Hamilton, its fraternities and other colleges, the book will sell for between three and four dollars.

now, although we are working on fitting the play to the needs of the Commons' stage."

David Freyss, in his first Charlatans' role, has the lead in the Harlequinade, which is a farce dealing with the marital problems of an acting couple in a Shakespearean company touring the English provinces. Mrs. Norman Lewis plays opposite Freyss in the production, and they are both supported by Al Hallock, Edith Brownfield, Ethel Cameron, Martha Hogan, Eleanor Leahy, Dan Fulmer, Al Kaiser, Bruce MacQueen, Charlie Rose, Dick Sherman, Bob Thompson and Harry Woggon.

The sets for the Playbill have been designed by Eric Selch, and its construction is being done under the direction of Jerry Denniston. Lighting will be handled by Edson Beckwith, while the properties are being taken care of by Ronny Brown.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Reader Criticizes Paper's Squabbles

It is interesting to note that yet another service of the Spectator to Hamilton College has been to serve as a private platform for the squabbles of three of its editors. For the past several weeks editorial and column space has been used for personal bickering by the staff concerning "The Hill's Politburo." If the function of a newspaper is to treat its readers to the personal recriminations of its editors, perhaps we may soon expect an issue devoted entirely to the individual opinions and gripes of all sixteen members of the staff.

Continentals Rally To Break Tie And Defeat Dutchmen, 32-20

Running wild in the final quarter the Hamilton football team broke a 20-20 deadlock to defeat arch rival Union on the gridiron for the first time since 1946 by a 32-20 score on November 17.

In the opening minutes of the game, quarterback Ron Seaman faked a handoff, hid the ball, and threw it to Bill Galvin for a 51 yard TD. Dick Gumerlock scampered thirteen yards around end a few minutes later to give Hamilton a 14-0 first quarter lead. Gumerlock went over from the five after a 96 yard drive in the second period.

After Union sparked by Soph Lennie Klingburg came back to knot the count at 20 all in the third period, the Continentals reared back into the lead mainly through the efforts of Al Persons. After setting-up the fourth Hamilton touchdown by snatching a long Seaman pass from the grips of four Garnet defenders, Persons scored on a run a few plays later. The fleet-foted right-half sprinted forty yards for the final TD on the familiar pitchout play.

Hamilton Cagers Open Against Toronto Five

Skiers Organize

Plans for Hamilton's 1951-'52 informal ski team were discussed by Coach John Panatier and interested skiers in the Baker room Wednesday afternoon. If the weather permits, the skiers plan to schedule about four away meets and two home meets. Practices and home meets will be held on the college owned ski hill and tow located near Route 20. Coach Panatier would like more men on the squad than attended the meeting and asks all those interested to contact him at the gym.

Continental Eleven Elects Co-Captains

Richard E. Gumerlock, a junior from Bound Brook, New Jersey, and Donald Abrahams, a junior from Elkins Park, Pennsylvania, will co-captain Hamilton's 1952 football team.

Captain of this year's Continental eleven, Gumerlock played both offensively and defensively in his left half-back slot. Abrahams served as line backer in the Blue's defensive unit the past year and called the defensive line formations. Gumerlock also is on the track team while Abrahams has played J.V. and varsity basketball. Both are members of D. T. honorary society and Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Utica area alumni will honor the coaches and members of this fall's Hamilton College football team at a testimonial dinner next Wednesday evening at 6:30 at the Yahnundosis Country Club.

Transportation for team members will leave the gym at 6:00.

Blue Sextet Holds Practice Sessions At Clinton Arena

Twenty-three men reported for the initial formal hockey team practice November 19 at the Clinton Arena rink. Since then Coach Greg Batt has been holding two formal practices on the town ice a week and running his squad through conditioning drills on the other days in the College gym and the Sage Building. Tuesday night saw the first layer of ice harden on the Sage Rink.

Although no definite groups have been decided on yet, the first line at the moment has Captain Charlie Beeching at center Charlie Reach at left wing, and either Frank Birdsall or Jack Sanborn at right wing. All are three year varsity veterans. The second line is composed of center Paul Van Dyke with freshman Roger Mosher and Bill May at left and right wings, respectively. May and Van Dyke stood out on the J.V. squad last year when transfer rules prevented their playing on the varsity.

The Blue sextet opens the season against R.P.I. after Christmas but R.P.I. probably will have a stronger squad than last year, when they lost to the Continentals twice, 5-1 and 9-5. The Engineers first line will likely be the same one that lead the 1950 freshmen to an undefeated season, while three frosh hockeymen from Canada will give the squad added depth and scoring punch.

Opening Contest Tonight At 8:00

By Jim Moodey

Tonight at 8:00 in the Alumni Gym Coach Ken Patrick will unveil the 1951-52 edition of the Hamilton College basketball team in a game with the University of Toronto. The Continentals will be out to avenge the defeat that the Canadians handed them last winter in Toronto. The visitors have had one test already this year, against Hobart at Geneva last night, and they face Colgate tomorrow night at Hamilton.

Coach Patrick, in his first year at the helm of the Hamilton club, has been holding practice sessions since the middle of October, and has cut the original fifty-five hopefuls down to fifteen. Eight of the fifteen are returning lettermen.

Scrimmage Preps Hill Quintette

To date the Hillmen have had scrimmages with Utica Tech and Cortland Teachers. The initial workout proved very little, for the Techmen have a relatively short team and as a result the Blue had no trouble controlling the boards. In the Cortland scrimmage, however, the Continentals faced a veteran well-balanced squad and Hamilton's new style of play was inaugurated.

This style, which will receive its first real test tonight, features a possession type offense. Patrick hopes to thwart the opponent's offense by slowing down the tempo of the game and tightening up the Blue's defense. He has also been sending the Hillmen through lengthy daily lay-up drills to insure a maximum game percentage of scores on the important "cripples." The fast break will be used consistently only in the late stages of games in which the Continentals need a quick six or eight points.

Four of the five starting berths are slated to be filled by lettermen: Bill Wetherbee and Roger Wood, forwards, and Jim Ryan and Tom Ritt,

Winter Intramural Schedules Posted

The 1951-52 intramural basketball schedule was posted today as many house teams were going through their last practice sessions before the season officially opens Monday night to run until April 3. Alpha Delta Phi, the defending champions, are favorites because of their height.

Four pairs of student referees will officiate the doubleheaders as designated on the schedule. Games will begin promptly at eight and nine p. m. Intramural eligibility will be limited to men not on current J.V. or varsity rosters after the teams' first games.

Intramural ping-pong and bowling schedules will be posted early next week with opening contests slated for December 10. All bowling matches will be run off at the Clinton Bowling Alleys. Ping-pong matches, composed of four singles and one doubles matches, will be played on a home-home basis on successive evenings. Matches can be played at fraternity houses or in the gym.

Thirty-eight players signed up for the intramural squash tournament while nine entered handball competition. Pairings have been posted on the gym bulletin board with first round matches being completed by next Saturday, December 8.

guards. Of the four, Wood, who wasn't with the squad last season, is a senior, while the other three are sophomores.

Center Post Undecided

The center slot is still uncertain, with four men battling for the post. The four, Ted Mullett who captained the '50-'51 team, Dave Vaughn who centered last year's junior varsity five, sophomore Phil Wolfe, and freshman John Ibach, have all looked equally good in practice. Jim Robinson and Vinny Coyle should both see much action tonight at forward and guard respectively.
